

Inequality, Occupy, and the Ongoing Financial Crisis

A talk by Prof. Gregory Squires

Kogod School of Business, Room T62

4:00pm Wednesday Nov. 1

Surging inequality has had severe consequences for communities throughout the US. The 2008 financial crisis continues to afflict millions of families. Ongoing debates over recovery efforts have been profoundly shaped by various trajectories of economic inequality. This talk will examine policy options that can ameliorate inequities in financial services and broader patterns of inequality that frame those challenges.

 SCHOOL of PUBLIC AFFAIRS

METROPOLITAN POLICY CENTER

ALL ARE WELCOME

Sponsored by the Metropolitan Policy Center