PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

American University Washington College of Law, Washington D.C. 2006 to Present

Assistant Dean for Career and Professional Development 2020 to Present

Direct the Office of Career and Professional Development, which provides career counseling, training, and professional development to 1400 JD, LLM, and SJD students and alums.

- Design and implement a five-year strategic plan to deliver high quality career and professional development services to a dynamic and diverse community.
- Supervise a diverse team of twelve career counselors, employer relations, and support staff.
- Oversee delivery of all student career and professional development services, including career counseling, on-campus recruiting events, networking opportunities, alumni engagement, educational panels, marketing/communications, online “textbook”, and school-wide professional development curriculum that complies with ABA standards.
- Oversee data collection and analysis of employment outcome measures submitted to accrediting and rankings bodies.
- Manage employer relations with firms, government agencies, corporations, and non-profits.
- Lead internal communication and collaboration with faculty and staff across the university.

Director, Women and the Law Program 2019 to 2021

Associate Director, Women and the Law Program 2006 to 2019

Led the Women and the Law Program, an academic unit housed within the Washington College of Law dedicated to integrating gender into all aspects of legal education, doctrine, and practice.

- Raised $1.5M in external funds from public and private donors for special projects addressing the intersection of gender and a range of topics including war crimes, health, and family law.
- Managed administrative needs including developing strategic plans, supervising staff and consultants, fundraising, communications, and budgeting.
- Convened over 130 conferences and panels on topics of interest to students and faculty, including gender and legal education, women in the judiciary, reproductive justice, global health and human rights, prevention of human trafficking, prosecution of sexual and gender-based violence in international tribunals, employment discrimination, comparative family law, intellectual property and gender, and student debt, among others.
- Designed WCL’s unique JD gender and law curriculum, including developing, staffing, and sequencing fifteen specialized offerings covering domestic and international law each year.
- Developed LLM degree program in “Gender, International and Comparative Law.”
